Dear Bob Brower,

I appreciate your letter and thank you for it.

I'm 31, unwell, limited in what I am able to do, and the only way I can keep the first of the Whitewash series and Oswald in New Orleans available is by xerox, with durable and expensive bindings. Not a single complaint.

The Whitewash is actual size, the O in NO two pages to a letter-sized sheet.

We appreciate your good wishes.

We hope against hope that the coming year will be a better one for us all.
